Committee for Control and Supervision of Experiments on Animals

15. (1) If at any time, on the advice of the Board, the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary so to do for the purpose of controlling and supervising experiments on animals, it may by notification in the Official Gazette constitute a Committee consisting of such number of officials and non-officials, as it may think fit to appoint thereto.
- (2) The Central Government shall nominate one of the Member of the Committee to be its Chairman

* Ins. by Act 26 of 1982, S. 12

- (3) The Committee shall have power to regulate its own Procedure in relation to the performance of its duties
- (4) The funds of the Committee shall consist of grants made to it from time to time by the Government and of contributions, donations, subscriptions, bequests, gifts and the like made to it by any person

Sub-Committee

- *[15A.(1) The Committee may constitute as many Sub-Committees as it thinks fit for exercising any power or discharging any duty of the Committee or for inquiring into or reporting and advising on any matter which the Committee may refer.
- (2) A Sub-Committee shall consist exclusively of the Members of the Committee]

Staff of the Committee

16. Subject to the control of the Central Government, the Committee may appoint such number of officers and other employees as may be necessary to enable it to exercise its powers and perform its duties and may determine the remuneration and other terms and conditions of service of such officers and other employees

Duties of the Committee and power of the Committee to make rules relating to experiments on animals

17. (1) It shall be the duty of the Committee to take all such measures as may be necessary to ensure that animals are not subjected to unnecessary pain or suffering before, during or after the performance of experiments on them, and for the purpose it may, by notification in the Gazette of India and subject to the condition of previous publication, make such rules as it may think fit in relation to the conduct of such experiments.

[(1A) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality to the foregoing power, such rules may provide for the following matters namely:-

- (a) the registration of persons or Institutions carrying on experiments on animals;
- (b) the reports and other information which shall be forwarded to the Committee by persons and Institutions carrying on experiments on animals]
- (2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, rules made by the Committee shall be designed to secure the following objects, namely:-
 - (a) that in cases where experiments are performed in any Institution, the responsibility therefore is placed on the person in charge of the Institution and that, in cases where experiments are performed outside an institution by individuals, the individuals, are qualified in that behalf and the experiments are performed on their full responsibility;

* Ins. by Act 26 of 1982, S. 13.

 Ins. by Act 26 of 1982, S. 14.

- (b) that experiments are performed with due care and humanity and that as far as possible experiments involving operations are performed under the influence of some anaesthetic of sufficient power to prevent the animals feeling pain;
- (c) that animals which, in the course of experiments under the influence of anesthetics, are so injured that their recovery would involve serious suffering, are ordinarily destroyed while still insensible;
- (d) that experiments on animals are avoided wherever it is possible to do so; as for example; in medical schools, hospitals, colleges and the like, if other teaching devices such as books, models, films and the like, may equally suffice;
- (e) that experiments on larger animals are avoided when it is possible to achieve the same results by experiments upon small laboratory animals like guinea pigs, rabbits, frogs and rats;
- (f) that, as far as possible, experiments are not performed merely for the purpose of acquiring manual skill;
- (g) that animals intended for the performance of experiments are properly looked after both before and after experiments;
- (h) that suitable records are maintained with respect to experiments performed on animals;
- (3) In making any rules under this section, the Committee shall be guided by such directions as the Central Government (consistently with the objects for which the Committee is set up) may give to it, and the Central Government is hereby authorized to give such direction;
- (4) All rules made by the Committee shall be binding on all individuals performing experiments outside institutions and on persons in-charge of institutions in which experiments are performed.

Power of entry and inspection

18. For the purpose of ensuring that the rules made by it are being complied with the Committee may authorize any of its officers or any other person in writing to inspect any institution or place where experiments are being carried on and report to it as a result of such inspection, and any officer or person so authorizes may-
- (a) enter at any time considered reasonable by him and inspect any institution or place in which experiments on animals are being carried on; and
 - (b) require any person to produce any record kept by him with respect to experiments on animals.

Power to prohibit experiments on animals

19. If the Committee is satisfied, on the report of any officer or other person made to it as a result of any inspection under section 18 or otherwise that the rules made by it under section 17 are not being animals, the Committee may, after giving an opportunity to the person or institution carrying on experiments on animals; the Committee may, after giving an opportunity to the person or institution of being heard in the matter, by order, prohibit the person or institution from carrying on any such experiments either for a specified period or indefinitely, or may all the person or institution to carry on such experiments subject to such special conditions as the Committee may think fit to impose.

Penalties

20. If any person -

- (a) contravenes any order made by the Committee under Section 19; or
- (b) commits a breach of any condition imposed by the Committee under that section:

he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, and, when the contravention or breach of condition has taken place in any institution the person in-charge of the institution shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be punishable accordingly.

CHAPTER V

22. No person shall exhibit or train -

- (i) any performing animal unless he is registered in accordance with the provisions of this chapter;
- (ii) as a performing animal, any animal which the Central Government may, by notification in the official gazette, specify as an animal which shall not be exhibited or trained as a performing animal.

Procedure of registration

23. (1) Every person desirous of exhibiting or training any performing animal shall, on making an application in the prescribed form to the prescribed authority and on payment of the prescribed fee, be registered under this Act unless he is a person who, by reason of an order made by the court under this chapter, is not entitled to be so registered.
- (2) An application for registration under this chapter shall contain such particulars as to the animals and as to the general nature of the performance in which the animals are to be exhibited or for which they are to be trained as may be prescribed, and the particulars so given shall be entered in the register maintained by the prescribed authority.

- (3) The prescribed authority shall give to every person whose name appears on the register kept by them, a certificate of registration in the prescribed form containing the particulars entered in the register.
- (4) Every register kept under this chapter shall at all reasonable times be open for inspection on payment of the prescribed fee, and any person shall on payment of the prescribed fee, be entitled to obtain copies thereof or make extracts therefrom.
- (5) Any person whose name is entered in the register shall, subject to the provisions of any order made under this Act by any court, be entitled, on making an application for the purpose, to have the particulars entered in the register with respect to him varied and where any such particulars are so varied, the existing certificate shall be cancelled and a new certificate issued.

Power of court to prohibit or restrict exhibition and training of performing animals

24. (1) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of any magistrate on a complaint made by a police officer or an officer authorized in writing by the prescribed authority referred to in Section 23, that the training or exhibition of any performing animals has been accompanied by unnecessary pain or suffering and should be prohibited or allowed only subject to conditions, the court may make an order against the person in respect of whom the complaint is made, prohibiting the training or exhibition or imposing such conditions in relation thereto, as may be specified by the order.
- (2) Any court by which an order is made under this section, shall cause a copy of the order to be sent, as soon as may be after the order is made, to the prescribed authority by which the person against whom the order is made is registered and shall cause the particulars of the order to be endorsed upon the certificate held by the person, and that person shall produce his certificate on being so required by the court for the purposes of endorsement, and the prescribed authority to which a copy of an order is sent under this section shall enter the particulars of the order in that register.

Power to enter premises

25. (1) Any person authorized in writing by the prescribed authority referred to in section 23 and any police officer not below the rank of a sub-inspector may
 - (a) enter at all reasonable times and inspect any premises in which any performing animals are being trained or exhibited or kept for training or exhibition, and any such animals found therein; and
 - (b) require any person who, he has reason to believe is a trainer or exhibitor of performing animals to produce his certificate of registration,
- (2) No person or police officer referred to in sub section (1) shall be entitled under this section to go on or behind the stage during a public performance of performing animals.

Offences

26. If any person -
 - (a) not being registered under this chapter, exhibits or trains any performing animal; or

- (b) being registered under the Act, exhibits or trains any performing animal with respect to which or in a manner with respect to which, he is not registered; or
- (c) exhibits or trains as a performing animal, any animal which is not to be used for the purpose by reason of a notification issued under clause(ii) of section 22; or
- (d) obstructs or willfully delays any person or police officer referred to in section 25 in the exercise of powers under this Act as to entry and inspection; or
- (e) conceals any animal with a view to avoiding such inspection; or
- (f) being a person registered under the Act, on being duly required in pursuance of this Act to produce his certificate under this Act, fails without reasonable excuse so to do; or

CHAPTER VI

MISCELLANEOUS

Saving as respects manner or killing prescribed by religion

28. Nothing contained in this Act shall render it an offence to kill any animal in a manner required by the religion of any community.

Power of court to deprive person convicted of ownership of animal

29. (1) If the owner of any animal is found guilty of any offence under this Act, the court upon his conviction thereof, may, if it thinks fit, in addition to any other punishment make an order that the animal with respect to which the offence was committed shall be forfeited to Government and may, further, make such order as to the disposal of the animal as it thinks fit under the circumstances.
- (2) No order under sub section (1) shall be made unless it is shown by evidence as to a previous conviction under this Act or as to the character of the owner or otherwise as to the treatment of the animal that the animal if left with the owner, is likely to be exposed to further cruelty.
- (3) without prejudice to the provisions contained in sub-section (1), the court may also order that a person convicted of an offence under this Act shall, either permanently or during such period as is fixed by the order, be prohibited from having the custody of any animal of any kind whatsoever, or as the court thinks fit of any animal of any kind or species specified in the order.

- (4) No order under sub-section (3) shall be made unless-
- (a) it is shown by evidence as to a previous conviction or as to the character of the said person or otherwise as to the treatment of the animal in relation to which he has been convicted that an animal in the custody of the said person is likely to be exposed to cruelty;
 - (b) it is stated in the complaint upon which the conviction was made that it is the intention of the complaint upon the conviction of the accused to request that an order be made as aforesaid and
 - (c) the offence for which the conviction was made was committed in an area in which under the law for the time being in force a license is necessary for the keeping of any such animal as that in respect of which the conviction was made.
- (5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law for the time being in force, any person in respect of whom an order is made under sub-section (3) shall have no right to the custody of any animal contrary to the provisions of the order, and if he contravenes the provisions of any order, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both.
- (6) Any court which has made an order under sub-section (3) may at any time, either on its own motion or on application made to it in this behalf, rescind or modify such order.

Presumption as to guilt in certain cases

30. If any person is charged with the offences of killing a goat, cow or its progeny contrary to the provisions of clause (1) of sub-section (1) or section 11, and it is proved that such person had in his possession, at the time the offence is alleged to have been committed, the skin of any such animal as is referred to in this section with any part of the skin of the head attached thereto, it shall be presumed until the contrary is proved that such animal was killed in a cruel manner.

Cognizability of offences

31. Notwithstanding anything contained in the code or criminal procedure, 1898, (5 of 1898) an offence punishable under clause (1) or clause (n) or clause (o) of sub-section (1) of section 11 or under section 12 shall be a cognizable offence within the meaning of that code.

Powers of search and seizure

32. (1) If a police officer not below the rank of sub-inspector, or any person authorized by the State Government in this behalf has reason to believe that an offence under clause (l) of sub-section (1) of section 11 in respect of any such animal as is referred to in section 30 is being, or that any person has in his possession the skin of any such animal with any part of the skin of the head attached thereto, he may enter and search such place or any place in which he has reason to believe any such skin to be, and may seize such skin or any article or thing used or intended to be used in the commission of such offence.

- (2) If a police officer not below the rank of sub-inspector, or any person authorized by the State Government in this behalf, has reason to believe that phooka or *(doom dev or any other operation of the nature referred to in section 12) has just been or is being, performed on any animal within the limits of his jurisdiction, he may enter any place in which he has reason to believe such animal to be, and may seize the animal and produce it for examination by the Veterinary Officer in charge of the area in which the animal is seized.

Search Warrants

33. (1) If a Magistrate of the first or second class or a Presidency Magistrate or a Commissioner of Police or District Superintendent of Police, upon information in writing; and after such inquiry as he thinks necessary, has reason to believe that an offence under this Act is being, or is about to be, or has been committed in any place, he may either himself enter and search or by his warrant authorize any police officer not below the rank of Sub-Inspector to enter and search the place.
- (2) The provisions of the code of criminal procedure, 1898, relating to searches shall so far as those provision can be made applicable, apply to searches under this Act.

General power of seizure for examination

34. Any police officer above the rank of a constable or any person authorized by the State Government in this behalf, who has reason to believe that an offence against this Act has been or is being, committed in respect of any animal, may, if in his opinion the circumstances so require, seize the animal and produce the same for examination by the nearest Magistrate or by such Veterinary Officer as may be prescribed; and such police officer or authorized person may, when seizing the animal, require the person in charge thereof to accompany it to the place of examination.

Treatment and care of animals

35. (1) The State Government may by general or special order appoint infirmaries for the treatment and care of animals in respect of which offences against this Act have been committed, and may authorize the detention therein of any animal pending its production before a Magistrate.
- (2) The Magistrate before whom a prosecution for an offence against this Act has been instituted may direct that the animals concerned shall be treated and cared for in an infirmary, until it is fit to perform its usual work or is otherwise fit for discharge, or that it shall be sent to a pinjrapole, or if the veterinary officer in charge of the area in which the animal is found or such a veterinary officer may be authorized in this behalf by rules made under this Act certified that it is incurable or cannot be removed without cruelty, that it shall be destroyed.

- (3) An animal sent for care and treatment to any infirmary shall not, unless the magistrate directs that it shall be sent to a pinjrapole or that it shall be destroyed, be released from such place except upon a certificate of its fitness for discharge issued by the veterinary officer in charge of the area in which the infirmary is situated or such other veterinary officer as may be authorized in this behalf by rules made under this Act
- (4) The cost of transporting the animal to an infirmary or pinjrapole and of its maintenance and treatment in an infirmary, shall be payable by the District Magistrate, or, in presidency-towns, by the Commissioner of Police;

Provided that when the magistrate so orders on account of the poverty of the owner of the animal, no charge shall be payable for the treatment of the animal.
- (5) Any amount payable by an owner of an animal under sub-section (4) may be recovered in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue,
- (6) If the owner refuses or neglects to remove the animal within such time as a Magistrate may specify, the magistrate may direct that the animal be sold and that the proceeds of the same be applied to the payment of such cost.
- (7) The surplus, if any, of the proceeds of such sale shall, on application made by the owner within two months from the date of the sale be paid to him.

Limitation of prosecutions

36. A prosecution for an offence against this Act shall not be instituted after the expiration of three months from the date of the commission of the offence.

Delegation of powers

37. The Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that all or any of the powers exercisable by it under this Act, may, subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose, be also exercised by any State Government.

Power to make rules

THE PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO DRAUGHT AND PACK ANIMALS RULES, 1965

(as amended up to 9th December, 1968)*

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 38 of the prevention of cruelty to Animals Act, 1960 (59 of 1960), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (i) of that section, namely: -

The Prevention of Cruelty to Draught and Pack Animals Rules, 1965

1. Short title and commencement

- 1 These rules may be called the Prevention of Cruelty to Draught and Pack Animals Rules, 1965.
- 2 They shall come into force in any state on such date as the State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint.

2. Definitions

(1) In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires:-

- (a) "Large bullock" or "Large Buffalo" respectively means a bullock or buffalo, the weight of which exceeds 350 kilograms;
- (b) "Medium Bullock" or "Medium Buffalo" respectively means a bullock or buffalo, the weight of which exceeds 250 kilograms, but does not exceed 350 kilograms;
- (c) "Small Bullock" or "Small Buffalo" respectively means a bullock or buffalo, the weight of which does not exceed 250 kilograms;
- (d) "Street" includes any way, road, lane, square, ally or passage, whether a throughfare or not over which the public have a right of way;
- (e) "Vehicle" means a wheeled conveyance of any description, which is capable of being used as such on any street.

(2) For the purposes of clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-rule (1), the weight of an animal shall be determined by applying any of the following formulae, namely:-

$$\frac{\text{Length} \times \text{Girth}^2 \text{ in cms}}{10838} = \text{Weight of animal in kgms. (Or)}$$

$$\frac{9(\text{Length in cms} \times \text{Girth in cms}^2)}{1,00,000}$$

1,00,000

3. Maximum loads for draught animals

- (1) No person shall cause any animal specified in column 1 of the table below to draw a vehicle of the kind described in the corresponding entry in column 2 thereof if it carries a load in excess of the weight specified in the corresponding entry in column 3 thereof.

7. Animals to be disengaged after work

No person shall continue to keep or cause to be kept in harness any animal used for the purpose of drawing vehicles, after it is no longer needed for such purpose.

8. Use of Spiked bits prohibited

No person shall, for the purpose of driving or riding an animal or causing it to draw any vehicle or for otherwise controlling it, use any spiked stick or bit, harness or yoke with spikes, knobs or projections or any other sharp tackle or equipment which causes or is likely to cause bruises, swellings, abrasions or severe pain to the animal.

9. Saddling of horses

No person shall cause a horse to be saddles in such a way that the harness rests directly on the animal's withers without there being sufficient clearance between the arch of the saddle and the withers.

10. Certificates regarding unladen weight of vehicles, etc.:

- (1) For the purpose of these rules, the Board may authorize any organization established for the purpose of preventing cruelty to animals or for promoting their welfare to issue to the owner of any vehicle which may be brought before it for examination, a certificate as to its unladen weight, and any certificate so issued may be accepted as evidence of the weight of such vehicle.

- (2) Nothing contained in this rule shall be construed as being in derogation of any right conferred by any law for the time being in force authorizing any local authority to determine the unladen weight of any vehicle and to grant the necessary certificate or stamp the vehicle in this behalf.

11. Powers of police officers and other authorized persons

- (1) If any police officer above the rank of a constable or any other person authorized in this behalf by the State Government or by the Board by general or special order has reason to believe that an offence against rule 3 or 4, has been or is being committed in respect of any animal referred to therein, he may, in any case where a weighbridge is available within a reasonable distance require the owner or other person in charge of such animal to take the animal or the vehicle or both to the weighbridge for the purpose of determining the weight of the load which the animal has been or is drawing or carrying.
- (2) If the owner or other person in charge of the aforesaid animal refuses to comply with the demand of the police officer or other person as so authorised, it shall be lawful for such police officer or other person to take the animal or the vehicle or both to the weight bridge for the purpose aforesaid.
- (3) As soon as any weight is determined under this rule, the owner or other person in charge of the said animal shall be given a statement in writing signed by the police officer or the person authorised as aforesaid, as the case may be, as to the weight so determined and any other information relevant for the purpose.

12. Application of rules where local bye-laws etc. exist

If there is in force in any area to which these rules extend, any rule, regulations or bye-law made under any law for the time being in force by any local authority in respect of any of the matters for which provision is made in these rules, such rule, regulation or bye-law shall, to the extent to which-

1. It contains provision less irksome to the animal than those contained in these rules, prevail,
2. It contains provisions more irksome to the animal than those contained in these rules, be of no effect.
